Project writeup

4-5 pages with figures and references

The report should describe the question/hypothesis you want to address with your tool. It should describe how to run the analyses, or tools. How to visualize or interpret the results provided. And it should indicate the github repository for the project code.

Each team should provide one report. The report should detail who contributed what parts of the projects.